You are most warmly invited to the book launch and CPD afternoon of:

Social Justice Re-Examined:
dilemmas and solutions for the classroom teacher
edited by Rowena Arshad, Terry Wrigley and Lynne Pratt

Friday February 1st 1- 3.30pm
(light lunch refreshments will be provided)

There will be an opportunity to attend sessions with the authors who will provide a workshop/conversation on their topic.

Come and join at least two of these workshops/conversations:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Social Justice in practice in early career teaching</th>
<th>Helen Knowles (recently qualified teacher)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Using 'critical literacy' to do gender</td>
<td>Lynne Pratt &amp; Yvonne Foley</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Developing inclusive practices for pupils with English as an Additional Language</td>
<td>Andy Hancock</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Class and Poverty: a teacher's response</td>
<td>Terry Wrigley</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gypsy, Roma and Travellers: teachers making a Difference</td>
<td>Tess Watson &amp; Gillean McCluskey</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Addressing homophobia as part of learning and teaching</td>
<td>Shereen Benjamin</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

There is no charge but to assist with catering and managing of workshops, we would be pleased if you could register your wish to attend and to indicate which two workshop/conversations you would like to join.

Attendees can purchase copies of the book at a ‘once only’ reduced price

Normal price £22.99

Launch price £10
(if bought on the day)

Please email the CERES administrator Jo Law if you wish to attend
jo.law@ed.ac.uk

For more details visit the CERES website at http://www.ceres.education.ed.ac.uk/