ANNUAL PUBLIC LECTURE

Professor Nancy Fraser
Henry A. & Louise Loeb Professor of Political & Social Science
The New School for Social Research
New York

“From Exchange to Expropriation to Exploitation: Understanding the Persistent Entanglement of Capitalism with Racial Oppression”

Date: Wednesday 1 June 2016 from 17:00 to 20:00 (BST)
Venue: Lecture Hall G1, Paterson’s Land
Holyrood Road
Edinburgh EH8 8AQ
United Kingdom

A drinks reception in room G43 will follow the lecture and conclude by 8pm

Places must be booked in advance via the following link:
http://mhseinaugurallecture.eventbrite.co.uk

Background:

Nancy Fraser is Henry A. and Louise Loeb Professor at the New School for Social Research and Professor II at the Centre for Gender Research at the University of Oslo. She also holds the Chair in «Global Justice» at the Collège d’études mondiales, Paris. Her most recent books are Domination et anticipation : pour un renouveau de la critique, with Luc Boltanski (2014); Transnationalizing the Public Sphere: Nancy Fraser debates her Critics (2014); and Fortunes of Feminism: From State-Managed Capitalism to Neoliberal Crisis (2013).

Fraser’s work has been translated into more than twenty languages and was cited twice by the Brazilian Supreme Court (in decisions upholding marriage equality and affirmative action). The recipient of 5 honorary degrees, she is currently working on a book called, “Capitalism, Crisis, Critique: A Critical Theory for the 21st Century.”